

Cuba Displays 6 Prisoners Called C.I.A. Agents

HAVANA, Aug. 6.—The Cuban Government produced a news conference today in which it described as counter-revolutionaries six prisoners captured by the Cuban security forces on July 11, and treated by Cuban security forces the next day.

One of the group, Alberto Laurencia Diaz, said he had received special training in Cuba but was sent to the United States to carry out sabotage operations in the United States.
