

SYMPOSIUM AGENDA
Friday, May 12, 1989

8:30-9:00 am	REGISTRATION
9:00-9:15 am	INTRODUCTION MODERATOR Steven Young , Former Dean, Hamline Law School, Partner, Washrop & Weinstein
9:15-10:00 am	G. Edward Schuh Dean, Humphrey Institute Low-Intensity Conflict: Overtures, Definitions, Policy Concerns* Col. H. Lee Dixon Army-Air Force Center for Low-Inten- sity Conflict
10:00-10:15 am	Break
10:15-11:15 am	Soviet Policy and Strategy for Low- Intensity Conflict* Dr. Richard Shultz Tufts University
11:30 am-1 pm	LUNCHEON Low-Intensity Conflict: A View from the Senate* Senator Dave Durenberger (R-Minn)
1:00-2:00 pm	El Salvador: A Case Study on Low- Intensity Conflict Policy Options* Dr. Caesar Sereseres University of California, Irvine
2:00-3:00 pm	Low-Intensity Conflict and Liberation Theology: A Nicaraguan View* Dr. Antonio Ybarra University of Dubuque
3:00-3:15 pm	Break
3:15-4:00 pm	Why Americans Oppose Low-Intensity Conflict* Herb London Dean, New York University
4:00-4:30 pm	SUMMARY AND DISCUSSION Steven Young

Audience Discussion will be allowed after each speaker.

LOCATION AND PARKING

The symposium will be held at the Humphrey Center, 301 19th Ave South, Minneapolis, on the West Bank of the University of Minnesota. We recommend parking in the West Bank Ramp, (public entrance is on 21st Ave at 4th Street) or the 7-Corners Municipal Ramp, 1 block north and 1 block west of the Humphrey Center, at Cedar and Washington Avenues (between the Holiday Inn-Metrodome and Grandma's).

SPONSORS

National Strategy Information Center

Hubert H. Humphrey Institute of Public Affairs, University of Minnesota

Army-Navy-Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps, University of Minnesota

Air Force Association

The Association of the United States Army

ABOUT THE SPEAKERS

Herbert I. London is Dean of the Gallatin Division, New York University and a Senior Fellow at the Hudson Institute. He is the author of Military Doctrine and the American Character and is a frequent lecturer on US national security policy and international relations.

Caesar D. Sereseres is an Associate Professor of Political Science at the University of California, Irvine. He is the author of Arms Transfers to Latin America: Toward a Policy of Mutual Respect, the Central American Policy Conundrum and US Policy for Central America. Professor Sereseres has also served in the Bureau for Inter-American Affairs, Department of State.

Col. H. Lee Dixon is the Reserve Component Advisor to the Commander, Army-Air Force Center for Low-Intensity Conflict, Langley AFB, Virginia. He is the author of numerous articles on low-intensity conflict including "Operational Art and Low-Intensity Conflict," "A Framework for Competitive Strategies and "A Framework for Competitive Strategies Analysis in Low-Intensity Conflict." Col. Dixon has also served with Air Force Project Checkmate, a warfighting analysis organization.

Antonio Ybarra is an Assistant Professor of Sociology at the University of Dubuque, Dubuque, Iowa. His areas of academic concentration include the sociology of religion, technology, and social change; peasant studies, and the role of women in sociological development. Dr. Ybarra's latest book is Liberation Theology and the Marxist Sociology of Religion.

Richard Shultz is Associate Professor of International Politics at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University. His special interests are US-Soviet intelligence and national security, international terrorism, low-intensity conflict, and arms control. His many publications include The Soviet Union and Revolutionary Warfare, Hydra of Car-nage: The International Linkages of Terrorism, and Guerrilla Warfare and Counterinsur-gency.

Senator David Durenberger (R-Minn) is the author of Neither Madmen nor Messiahs: A Policy of National Security for America and a member of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.

Symposium on Low-Intensity Conflict
REGISTRATION FORM

I (We) will attend this seminar at the Humphrey Center on 12 May 1989. Enclosed is $20/person (non-student) or $10/person (student), which includes the symposium luncheon. Mail check and registration form to:

LIC Symposium
Rm 3, Armory
15 Church St SE
University of Minnesota
Minneapolis, MN 55455

Make check payable to LIC Symposium
For information call (612) 624-2884

Name(s) _____
Address _____
Telephone _____
Affiliation _____
Student ID Number (if applicable) _____
College/University _____